CALCULATIONS

TWENTY-THIRD YEAR

AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,

COMMENCING
THE FOURTH OF JULY, A.D. 1798:

CONTAINING

MOON; the Rising, Setting, and Southing of the most conspicuous PLANETS and fixed STARS; the Equation of Time; and Time of High Water at New-York, &c

ALSO,

The Increase, Decrease, and Length of Days;
With the Festivals, &c.

Calculated for the Latitude and Meridian of
NEW-YORK.

By ABRAHAM SHOEMAKER.

From the Press of T. & J. SWORDS.

Notes to the Reader.

I. THE calculations of this Almanack are made to solar or apparent time; to which, for the mean or clock time, apply the equation given in the fifth column, adding when the Sun is slow, and subtracting when fast.

II. The time of high water, at New-York, is so computed as to serve for either morning or afternoon, sufficiently near for common use; the morning flood being about twelve minutes earlier than the time in the tide-column, and that of the afternoon as much later.

III. The rising, setting, or southing of a star, may be carried several days backward by adding, or forward by subtracting, four minutes per day: for instance, on the 8th of January Sirius is south at 15 minutes past 11; adding 12 minutes for three days sooner, we have 1 h. 27 m. for the southing on the 5th, and deducting 8 minutes for two later, leaves 1 h. 7 m. for that of the 10th of the same month, &c.

IV. As the day ends at midnight, the rising, setting and southing of the Moon, when after that time, is found against the succeeding day: so, on the night of (or following) the 14th of January, the Moon sets at 1 h. 17 m. after midnight, viz. in the morning of the 15th; not ch. 18 m. the time opposite the 14th, which is that of its setting the preceding morning.

FRENCH CALENDER.

SINCE the establishment of the French Republic, an alteration has been made in their Calender. The National Convention has entirely taken the former denominations, and adopted the following—

December 21st. begins the first month of the French year, Nivose, or the snowy month.

January 20th. begins the second month, Pluiose, or the rainy month.

February 19th. begins the third month, Ventose, or the blustering month.

March 21st. begins the fourth month, Germinal, or the budding month.

April 20th. begins the fifth month, Floreal, or the flowering month.

May 20th. begins the sixth month, Prairial, or the meadow month.

June 19th. begins the seventh month, Messidor, or the harvest month.

July 19th. begins the eighth month, Thermidor, or the sultry month.

August 18th. begins the ninth month, Fructidor, or the month of fruits.

September 22d. begins the tenth month, Vendemiaire, or the vintage month.

October 22d. begins the eleventh month, Brumaire, or the foggy month.

November 21st. begins the twelfth month, Frimaire, or the frolic month.

N. B. Observe, that no one of the months in the French Calender consists of more than thirty days.—The five superfluous days are termed Sans-culottes, or days appropriated to the Sans-Culottes festivals, and happen between the 16th and 22d of September, and are intercalated between the French months Fructidor and Vendemiaire.

NO goods are to be imported, in any vessel owned in the whole or part by citizens of the United States, from any foreign port, unless the master shall have on board a manifest or warehouse receipt by him, containing the names of the ports or places where such goods were received, and the port where consigned or destined to, and the name and built of the vessel, and true tonnage by register, with the name of the master and place to which such vessel belongs, and particular account of all the cargo in packages, or loose, with the marks and numbers, and description of each, by usual denominations in words at length.

For any goods not included in the manifest as above, the master is to forfeit a sum equal to their value, unless it is made to appear to the collector, naval officer and surveyor, or to a court on trial, that no part of the cargo was unshipped, except what is mentioned in the report, or that the manifest has been lost or mislaid without fraud, or defaced by accident, or incorrect by mistake.

The master of any vessel, bound to any port in the United States, on arrival within four leagues of the coast, or within any bays or harbours, ports, rivers, creeks, or inlets thereof, on demand, to produce such manifests to the officer of the customs first coming on board, and deliver him a copy thereof, subscribed by the master, and the officer to certify on the original, that the same was so produced, and a copy delivered him, and the master to produce the original so certified to the officer first coming on board, on his arrival in the district where the cargo is intended to be landed, and deliver to such officer a copy thereof, to be provided and subscribed by the master, the delivery of which to be certified by the said officer on the original manifest, and the original manifest to be delivered afterwards to the collector.

The penalty for not producing such manifests, and delivering copies thereof, or for not informing such officer of the destination of such vessel, or giving false account of destination, is five hundred dollars for each offence.

Any vessel within four leagues of the coast, or within the limits of a district, unloading goods without authority from proper officers, the master and the mate forfeit one thousand dollars, and the goods forfeited, except in case of accident, necessity, or stress of weather, which shall be proved before the collector.

Masters of vessels receiving goods so unloaded, (except as before excepted) to forfeit treble the value of such goods, and the ship, boat, or vessel, receiving them forfeited.

If any vessel, arriving within a district, shall depart or attempt to depart from the same (unless to some more interior port, or by stress of weather) without report made to the collector, the master forfeits four hundred dollars.

Any vessel arriving from a foreign port, the master is to report to the collector within a twenty-four hours after his arrival; and within forty-eight hours further to report the name, burthen, and loading of such ship, whether in packages or loose, and of the marks, numbers, and contents of each package, and place or places, person or persons, to or for whom they are respectively consigned or destined, also the places where she took in her loading, what country built, from what foreign port she last sailed, who was master during the voyage, and is at the time of the report, and (if a vessel of the United States) who are owners.

Masters neglecting to make such reports, forfeit 1000 dollars.

Ships of war or packets of any prince or state, and not permitted by such prince or state to carry goods in way of trade, are not required to make such report.

Masters of vessels, after arrival and entry, may proceed to foreign ports, with goods reported for such foreign port, without paying duty thereon, on giving bond; and bonds are not required when vessels put in in distress.

Duties only to be paid where goods are landed (on giving bonds if such vessel proceeds to another district.)

Collector to furnish the master, bound to another district, with a copy of his report, which he is to show to the collector of that district within twenty-four hours after his arrival, on penalty of five hundred dollars.

Owners or consignees of goods imported, are, within fifteen days after the master's report, to make entry with the collector of the marks, numbers, and contents of each package, or quantity and quality in bulk, with the neat prime cost thereof, and produce the original invoice, documents and bills of lading, and declare all the party knows on oath or affirmation, and subscribe the same.

Sea-stores to be specified by masters, and exempted from duty, if not more than the principal officers of the customs think are necessary, but are not to be landed.

Clothes, books, household furniture, tools or implements of trade or profession of persons arriving in the United States to settle, exempted from duty on due proof.

No goods from foreign parts to be unloaded but between sunrise and sun-set, without special license for that purpose, nor without a permit, under penalty of four hundred dollars, disability from holding office for seven years, and being advertised in the gazettes, and forfeiture of goods; and if above the value of four hundred dollars, of vessel and apparel.

And when letters are not for a post-town, the nearest post-town to the place ought to be mentioned.

All letters which are lodged to go by the British Packets, should be distinguished by writing per Packet; for there are places of the same name in the United States, similar to those in Europe.

THE END.

THE publisher of the New-York Register and Directory thinks it necessary to make some apology for raising the price of it this year.—The last year reduced to lower than it had been sold at for some years previous—in doing, that, by reducing the price, and increasing the quantity of information hitherto contained in it, to extend the sale—but finding it not to succeed, and that he was considerably a loser, he has this year been necessitated to contract his expences, and make a small addition to the price—a dollar of remuneration being his just moving principle.
